

Dear Contributor,

Beginning January 2017, in the interest of safeguarding the CVE Reporter's reputation and respect in the Community as a trustworthy publication and to avoid inconveniencing our contributors with repeated inquiries as to the originality of their submissions, we have decided to request from all our contributors the following statement regarding the material that you submit to the CVE Reporter:

Any and all material that I submit to the CVE Reporter now and in the future is my original work and if the material should contain any material protected by any copyright laws, I have express permission from the copyright owners to post the material the CVE Reporter, Inc. (Italicized wording is excerpted from User Representations and Warranties section page 4A of the CVE Reporter.)
