CVE Master Management Expands Its Commitment to Quality of Life

Real Issues. Real Trust. Real Journalism. Real Track Record.

For most property services companies, the job is relatively straightforward: maintain the property, oversee infrastructure, manage finances and make sure the day-to-day operations of a community run smoothly.

At Century Village East, CVE Master Management has chosen to take a broader approach.

While maintaining the Village and its infrastructure remains its core responsibility, CVE Master Management and its Board of Directors have increasingly looked for opportunities to go beyond the traditional nuts and bolts of property management. The goal is to enhance the overall quality of life of the thousands of residents who call Century Village East home.

That commitment will be particularly visible during October, when CVE Master Management will bring two health and wellness events directly into the Village.

On October 7, CVE Master Management, in partnership with Humana Healthcare, will host Wellness in the Park at the CVE Central Park Zen Garden. The outdoor event will focus on movement, connection and healthy living and will include a guided community walk from the Zen Garden to the clubhouse and back.

Then, on October 14, CVE Master Management will once again host an immunization clinic, providing residents with convenient access to seasonal vaccinations without

The Green Market Is Back at Century Village East

Real Issues. Real Trust. Real Journalism. Real Track Record.

Friday mornings at Century Village East have gotten a little fresher with the return of the Original GreenMarket for another season.

The weekly Green Market is once again open every Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Century Village East Clubhouse parking lot. The season began September 25 and will continue through May 21, 2027.

Residents can stop by each week to shop, browse and enjoy a variety of offerings that may include locally grown foods, fresh produce, plants and flowers.

The Green Market provides residents with a convenient opportunity to shop locally without leaving the Village while enjoying a relaxed Friday morning with friends and neighbors.

With different vendors and products to discover, there is always a reason to stop by and see what is available that week.

The Original GreenMarket is open every Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Clubhouse parking lot through May 21. For additional information, call 561-299-8684.

Vote NO on NOvember 3, 2026

City Ballot Questions

Against the public's wishes, but to developers' delight, 3/5 of the Deerfield Beach Commission placed ballot questions for City voters on the November 3 national ballot. They weaken voter-approved City Charter beach protections. Since 2003, Articles 11.01, 11.02, & Section 7.09(2) have protected our beach, the Main Beach Parking lot, and valuable City-owned property. The Commission is asking you to extend all their terms by 20 months. Don't be fooled into handing over your voting power to a commission majority.

THE WOLF IS AT THE DOOR

D Existing Section 3.04 provides for staggered March elections in odd-numbered years.

NO TO BAD BALLOT QUESTION D: this adds 20 months to the entire commission's terms and removes their 8-year term limits. It disregards their own Charter Review Board's proposed work-around to move elections to November without extending anyone's term. 3/5 of our Commissioners rejected that approach and chose the 20-month extension. Voters should not have to accept 20 extra months for Commissioners beyond the term to which they were elected, merely to change the election date. VOTE NO.

E Existing Section 7.09(2) requires voter approval before City property worth more than $750,000 may be sold, transferred, or leased.

NO TO BAD BALLOT QUESTION E: this section protects public property that may be impossible to replace. Question E removes the voters' power and allows three Commissioners to approve a sale or lease without voters' approval? Wouldn't you want a vote if the City wanted to sell public land to a data center/developer? Don't give up that right! VOTE NO.

G Existing Article 11.01 protects the beach from overdevelopment. It limits Building Height and mass through Floor Area Ratio ("FAR") limits. Think of height as a skinny giraffe and FAR as a stocky elephant: a building can stay within the height limit yet become much bulkier and contain more mass if FAR disappears.

NO TO BAD BALLOT QUESTION G: Question G removes Charter limits on FAR and mixed and accessory uses. That means more units and density, more traffic and congestion, greater pressure on roads and utilities, and harder hurricane evacuations. More development increases taxes for the entire City because it increases demands on water, sewer, drainage, sanitation, police and fire. Keep FAR in the Charter. VOTE NO.

H Existing Article 11.02 protects the Main Beach Parking lot for families and beach visitors.

NO TO BAD BALLOT QUESTION H: Article 11.02 currently prevents developers from using the Main Beach Parking lot spaces to satisfy private developers' parking shortages through "technical deviations." It also limits commercial activity. Temporary festivals, civic events and vendors are allowed. Question H removes these Charter protections on technical deviations and commercial activity and opens the door to using main beach parking for private development parking and restaurant, retail or other commercial operations. VOTE NO.

Find out how you can help save Deerfield Beach:
votesaveourbeach.org

THE COMMON THREAD: Each ballot question asks voters to surrender the Charter's voter power. Once the beach is overdeveloped or City-owned land is sold, there is no do-over. Keep Charter protections with the voters who created them. Protect your beach, public parking, City property, and your voting power. VOTE NO

Todd Drosky and Joe Cummings are voting YES on all 9 Charter Amendments!

"Deerfield Beach is a great city and these common sense charter changes will make it even better – for decades to come!"

– Todd Drosky & Joe Cummings

Common Sense Charter Changes... for a Better Deerfield Beach!

After nearly a year of public meetings and careful review by the Deerfield Beach Charter Review Board and the City Commission, 9 proposed Charter Amendments were placed on the November ballot. Your YES vote on all 9 Amendments will save hundreds of thousands of taxpayers' dollars, make future elections fairer, clarify development issues, and bring the Charter up to date, conforming with state law.
These Five Amendments are especially important:

✔ Vote YES on AMENDMENT D to change Commission elections from March of odd numbered years to November of even numbered years (Presidential and Gubernatorial election years) beginning November, 2028. THIS AMENDMENT STILL KEEPS STAGGERED TERMS AND DOESN'T CHANGE THE TWO-TERM LIMIT FOR ANY CURRENT OR FUTURE COMMISSIONERS. Moving the election to November will increase voter participation from 10% to potentially 70% and reduce City Election costs from hundreds of thousands of dollars every election cycle to $0 since Broward County SOE will run the elections.

✔ Vote YES on AMENDMENT E to eliminate costly and unnecessary referendum campaigns. A referendum question does not provide enough detail for voters to make an informed decision. The sale or lease of public property should be discussed and decided upon in open public meetings. All the terms, conditions, and financial details of any proposed public property transaction should be readily accessible to the public for detailed examination and questions prior to any contractual commitment by the City.

✔ Vote YES on AMENDMENT G to update the building code on properties east of the Intracoastal Waterway. The current Charter includes outdated language written 24 years ago. THIS AMENDMENT DOES NOT CHANGE THE CURRENT HEIGHT OR SETBACK RESTRICTIONS. Floor-to-area ratios and other property restrictions are better controlled through the City's Comprehensive Land-Use Plan which requires public hearings prior to any changes.

✔ Vote YES on AMENDMENT H to require the City's main beach parking areas conform to current code and land-development standards. The rules governing the City's main beach parking areas impose restrictions on events such as the Farmers Market and other community activities. Removing the parking restrictions from the Charter and requiring their regulation and enforcement through the City's Land-Use Plan is a much more effective way to manage parking.

✔ Vote YES on AMENDMENT I to require that any future change of police or fire services from the existing provider to another governmental entity or agency, special district, or sheriff's office, be approved by at least four-fifths (4/5) of the City Commission. This Amendment does not change the current decision to create a new Deerfield Beach Public Safety Department.

Updating and improving the Deerfield Beach Charter just makes good sense – Good Common Sense!

Deerfield Beach Voters to Consider Nine Charter Amendments

Text by CVE REPORTER STAFF; Logo courtesy deerfield-beach.com.

Real Issues. Real Trust. Real Journalism. Real Track Record.

Deerfield Beach voters will be asked to consider nine proposed amendments to the City Charter when they head to the polls on Tuesday, November 3.

To help residents understand the proposals before casting their ballots, the City of Deerfield Beach has made detailed information about each amendment available online.

The resources provide an overview of the nine proposed amendments, along with side-by-side comparisons showing the existing Charter language and the proposed changes. Residents can also review supporting documents, frequently asked questions, voting information and a glossary explaining commonly used terms.

City officials are encouraging residents to review the information carefully and become familiar with each of the proposed amendments before Election Day.

Complete information about the nine proposed Charter amendments and voting information is available on the City of Deerfield Beach website.

having to leave the Village.

CVE Master Management's involvement in residents' health and wellness can be traced in part to the COVID pandemic. At a time when COVID vaccines were difficult to obtain, CVE Master Management helped bring vaccinations directly into Century Village East. That effort demonstrated how the organization could use its resources and relationships to help residents in ways that extended well beyond traditional property management.

"We understand that our first responsibility is to manage and maintain the property, and we take that responsibility very seriously," said CVE Master Management Executive Director Val Smikle. "But we also believe that when there are opportunities for us to make life better, healthier or more convenient for our residents, we should take advantage of them. We want to look at the Village as a whole and ask what more we can do to enhance the quality of life of the people who live here."

CVE Master Management Board President Eli Okun said that philosophy reflects the Board's broader view of its responsibility to the community.

"Our responsibility doesn't have to end with maintaining roads, landscaping and infrastructure," Okun said. "When we have an opportunity to bring programs and services into the Village that can improve the health, well-being and quality of life of our residents, we believe we should pursue it. We want Century Village East to be more than a well-maintained community. We want it to be a great place to live."

That philosophy also extends beyond the gates.

Through its ongoing Caring Beyond the Gates campaign, CVE Master Management has worked over the years to improve areas surrounding Century Village East. Those efforts have included community cleanups, graffiti removal, repairs and other projects aimed at keeping the areas residents see and travel through every day clean and attractive.

It reflects a recognition that quality of life is influenced not only by what happens inside the Village, but also by the condition of the community immediately surrounding it.

And CVE Master Management's interest in what happens outside the Village has not been limited to physical events or activities. The company has also demonstrated a willingness to assist residents in remaining involved in important community issues. On several occasions, the management company has offered transportation to and from outside government meetings during which topics that affect residents have been discussed and voted on.

Maintaining roads, landscaping, security systems, buildings and infrastructure will always be fundamental responsibilities of CVE Master Management. But the organization has chosen not to define its role solely by those responsibilities.

From bringing vaccinations directly to residents and encouraging healthy activity to helping care for the areas surrounding the Village, CVE Master Management continues to look beyond traditional property management for new ways to make Century Village East an even better place to live.

Pumpkins, candy, live music and family-friendly entertainment will take center stage when the City of Deerfield Beach hosts its Fall Festival on Saturday, October 10, from 4 to 8 p.m. at Pioneer Park, 217 NE 5th Avenue. Admission is free.

One of the city's signature seasonal traditions, the Fall Festival offers an evening of activities, food and entertainment for families, friends and neighbors.

The popular Pumpkin Patch will provide a colorful backdrop for seasonal photos, and children can select a pumpkin to take home while supplies last. The Trunk-or-Treat area will feature creatively decorated vehicles and themed tents, with community organizations handing out candy and treats.

Other activities throughout the evening will include live entertainment, archery, fall-themed crafts and activities, a Kids Zone, Biergarten and Artisan Vendor Lane. A variety of food vendors will also be on hand.

To make getting to and from the festival easier, the city will provide complimentary shuttle service from 3:30 to 8:30 p.m. Parking and shuttle pickup will be available at the Braithwaite Center for Active Aging, 325 NW 2nd Avenue, with overflow parking at the corner of Eller Street and NW 2nd Street at the former Water Plant site.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor

September 7, 2026

Election Day in the United States will occur on November 3, 2026. This day is designated for federal, state and local elections. Before 1845, election dates varied by state, leading to confusion, and this is exactly why this election is so important to Deerfield Beach at this time. Election Day is a crucial opportunity for citizens to engage in democracy by voting.

Unfortunately, some Deerfield Beach Commissioners would rather that their residents do not have the opportunity to vote. I will clarify this below.

The City Commission convened a Charter Review Board to look into our Charter. This is done approximately every 10 to 20 years to see if changes should be made for the benefit of the City. Each Commissioner chooses a resident, usually from their district, to look into the Charter and tell the Commissioners what they feel should be changed.

The Committee met for a year to discuss what changes, if any, needed to be made. The City Commission chose not to take the advice of this Committee on several key issues—actually, on five of the nine questions—which will reduce or remove the voters' power from critically important City decisions. Commissioner Ben Preston, District 2, and Commissioner Shanetzky, District 3, oppose this.

Question D. Change Municipal Election Dates: Moves municipal elections to November in even-numbered years and handles the transition of Commission terms. If this is approved, the proposal would cancel the March 2027 and March 2029 municipal elections. If this gets passed, it will give the ENTIRE Commission 20 UNELECTED extra months in office after their terms are over—of decision-making power, pay, travel and benefits.

There is a better way to change the March elections. Commission terms are currently two four-year terms, not an additional 20 months. The same result of changing the elections could happen by reducing the terms of two of the Commissioners by four months and not touching the terms of the other Commissioners at all. One of the two Commissioners, Ben Preston, has already stated he doesn't want his term extended by 20 months.

Please reread Question D. Nowhere does it tell you what will actually happen if it were to go through. What actually would happen is that you, the voter, would have your voting rights taken away!

Question E is equally troubling. Existing Charter Section 7.09(2) protects valuable City-owned property throughout Deerfield Beach. When City land valued above $750,000 is proposed for sale, lease or transfer—for instance, to a data center or developer—voters currently have the right to approve or reject that transaction.

Question E would eliminate the voter approval process. Commissioners could sell, lease, transfer or even donate valuable public property without the voters' knowledge or consent. Data centers require large sites and can bring substantial demands for electricity, water and supporting infrastructure. Whether or not City land should be used for such purposes is precisely the kind of decision voters should not surrender to three members of a five-member Commission.

Questions G and H target the voter-approved Charter protections that limit overdevelopment and protect our public beach parking. These safeguards have helped preserve public access, control development intensity and prevent our beachfront from becoming a wall of oversized buildings.

These protections belong to the people. They should not be removed simply because they are inconvenient for developers or a Commission majority.

Question I would require a supermajority for certain future decisions. While that may sound protective, it would allow a minority of the Commission to block the will of the majority. Instead of strengthening representative government, it could give two Commissioners the power to override three! Crazy.

The common thread running through these proposals is the removal of voters from Deerfield Beach's decision-making process. We are being asked to surrender our voice over elections, valuable public property, beach parking and overdevelopment.

Once voters give these rights away, getting them back will not be easy.

On November 3, I am voting NO on all nine Charter questions. I urge every Deerfield Beach voter to do the same.

From Volunteers to Family Our Journey in Israel

Thanks to LEAH ILYAS for providing the information and photos for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

We traveled to Israel believing we were going there to give—to volunteer, to help and to show our support. Seven days later, we returned home realizing how much Israel had given us in return.

In last month's CVE Reporter, we wrote about our plans to participate in a volunteer program in Israel. Now we would like to share what happened and why the journey became so much more than we expected.

Our group of 32 volunteers included members of the Chabad Center of Houston, led by Rabbi Chaim Lazaroff, along with participants from Florida, New York, New Jersey, Canada and England. We ranged in age from 22 to 78 and came from different backgrounds and levels of religious observance. Those differences quickly disappeared.

After arriving at Ben Gurion Airport, we were met by representatives of Taglit-Birthright Israel, which organized the trip. We had our own bus and driver, along with our coordinator, Shoshana, who kept our volunteer activities and travels running smoothly.

Every day brought a new opportunity to contribute.

At a mikvah in Tzfat, we prepared and packaged personal items for women. At nursing homes in Tiberias and Jerusalem, we assisted with recreational and rehabilitation activities and spent time talking with residents in Russian, Hebrew and French. Rabbi Chaim and Tamir, one of our volunteers, also helped male residents put on tefillin.

At Nadav's Vineyard, we cut back excess growth and tied grapevines. At Kibbutz Re'im, we pulled weeds and prepared the ground for a new biology school project. At the kibbutz zoo, we helped create a small pond for the ducks. At Pantry Packers Jerusalem, we packaged grains and legumes for families in need.

Our volunteer shifts generally lasted about two hours. With 32 enthusiastic people working together, we often finished early and found ourselves asking, "What else can we do?"

The organizers reminded us that our contribution was about more than the work we completed. Simply traveling from other countries to stand beside the people of Israel and show our support was meaningful.

Our days also included visits to historical, cultural and spiritual sites. We visited places associated with great Jewish sages, including the Rambam and the Ari, and traveled to the Cave of Machpelah in Hebron, the traditional burial place of the patriarchs and matriarchs.

We also visited communities in the Gaza Envelope, including Kibbutz Re'im and Sderot, as well as the site of the Nova Music Festival.

At Kibbutz Re'im, we heard firsthand from Eran about the October 7, 2023 attack. At the Chabad House in Sderot, the rabbi shared his experiences from that day. At the Nova Festival site, we met survivor Barak Nixon, who told us how he survived the attack and helped save two young women. Hearing these stories in the places where they occurred was among the most emotional experiences of our journey.

We also met with Neil Lazarus, who discussed the political situation in the Middle East and the different perspectives surrounding the region's complex challenges.

There were lighter moments, too. We visited the Kotel several times, explored Jerusalem's markets at night and attended a kosher food-truck festival with live music.

Perhaps the most unexpected part of the trip was what happened within our own group. In only seven days, 32 strangers became a family.

Some men gathered for prayers early in the morning, while at other times prayers took place at the back of our bus. The rabbi and other observant members helped those less familiar with Jewish traditions put on tefillin and learn the prayers. There was no pressure—only sharing, encouragement and respect.

Shabbat gave everyone an opportunity to experience Israel in their own way. Vladimir and I spent time with family and friends, while those who remained at the hotel organized Shabbat meals and celebrated together.

By the end of the week, friendships had formed among people of different ages, backgrounds and levels of religious observance.

Our journey did not end when we returned home. Our WhatsApp group remains active as participants share photographs, thoughts, experiences and even books they are reading. Some members of the group began lighting Shabbat candles after returning home.

We went to Israel hoping to contribute something of ourselves. Instead, we came home carrying something with us—new friendships, unforgettable memories, a deeper connection to our Jewish heritage and a renewed understanding of how important it is to support one another.

We hope our experience encourages others to consider volunteering. Sometimes helping begins with something very simple: showing up.

Temple B'nai Shalom Members Enjoy Faith Friendship and Fun

Thanks to PAUL SCHEINER for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

A group of sports fans from Temple B'nai Shalom headed to LoanDepot Park on a Sunday afternoon in August to enjoy a Miami Marlins game celebrating Jewish Heritage.

The afternoon became even more enjoyable when the Marlins came away with a win. But for the Temple members who attended, the final score was almost beside the point. The real highlight was spending an afternoon together with friends and fellow members of the Jewish community. Everyone also received a free Marlins jersey, which members were looking forward to wearing at the following Shabbat service.

The baseball outing is just one example of the many social activities Temple B'nai Shalom members enjoy together. Before the end of the year, plans include a scavenger hunt, a play at the Willow Theatre, a Christmas Eve comedy night and a Caribbean cruise to the Panama Canal. More activities are already being planned for next year.

While the Temple offers plenty of opportunities to socialize, Temple B'nai Shalom is first and foremost a religious organization serving the Century Village community. Members observe the major Jewish holidays throughout the year, with special traditions including a costumed Purim service, an annual Passover Seder and the Temple's popular Hanukkah Menorah Service, along with Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur observances.

Shabbat services are held every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Activity Center. The upbeat services are led by Cantor Mitch Martin and followed by an oneg, giving everyone an opportunity to mingle and schmooze over coffee and cake.

The Temple also holds monthly Lunch and Learn sessions featuring discussions on a variety of stimulating topics. Recent subjects have included the Middle East, the joys of Yiddish and Pirkei Avot. Bagels and coffee help get the conversation started.

For more information about Temple B'nai Shalom, visit templebnaishalom.org or call Paul Scheiner at (630) 452-1131.

Choraleers Rookie Sings Its Praises

Thanks to CAROLE OSHINSKY for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

It was just a few years ago that the CVE Choraleers marked 50 years of bringing music and song to the Village. For over a half century, residents have been coming together to raise their voices together. The season culminates in an annual concert.

Despite having such a rich history in the Village, it took years of living in CVE before Len Miller decided to give the Choraleers a shot. Last year, Miller, who moved to the village seven years ago and lives in Farnham N, decided to see what they were all about. It was one of the best decisions he's made.

"Here I was, a 'newbie,' a Canadian snowbird from Montreal among a group of almost complete strangers," he recalls, "Yet they welcomed me with open arms."

Miller says it did not take long for him to fit in. Perhaps it was his brief stint in a barbershop quartet decades earlier that made him feel right at home. Or perhaps it was his fifty-year history of singing in various synagogue choirs that helped. Regardless, Miller says he has found a new home among his fellow choraleers.

The choir will hold its practice sessions in the Party Room of the CVE Clubhouse each Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m., beginning Dec. 8. The deadline for attending the weekly rehearsals and participating in the annual concert is January 26, 2027.

The musical show, which will feature the full choir and soloists, is scheduled for the evening of Monday, March 1. It will be preceded by a Silent Auction, with both events to be held in the Clubhouse Party Room.

For more information on joining the group, email cvechoraleers@gmail.com or call 914-497-1162.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Remembering Blanche Weinberg

Thanks to JAMES HICKS for providing the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

Blanche Weinberg, a CVE resident for more than 25 years, died peacefully on June 27, not long after her 101st birthday.

Blanche was married for 26 years to her first husband, Paul Kahn, who was among the first violinists in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. She was married to her second husband, Jerome Weinberg, for 30 years. After Jerome's death, her final partner in life—as well as in bridge—was Sudhakar Bhatt, who passed away in their CVE condo in 2022.

Blanche loved her family beyond all measure. To the end, she enjoyed keeping in touch with her daughters, Debby and Vivian, sharing their joys and comforting them in their sorrows.

Blanche also had close ties to her neighbors in Farnham N, especially Dori Insalaco. Dori and Blanche became friends in recent years, sharing stories and delighting in each other's company. Dori supported and cared for Blanche in her final weeks, even creating a playlist of violin music that visibly moved Blanche after she had lost the power to speak.

CVE residents Jim and Jill Hicks were also close to Blanche, often bringing dinner to her and Dori, with card games to follow.

Blanche loved the arts as well, especially music. She played the violin beautifully, serving as concertmaster of the Century Village Symphony Orchestra for many years. She also gave weekly lessons and enjoyed private sessions with fellow musicians. Despite failing sight and hearing, she loved card games, especially bridge and Skip-Bo.

She was fiercely independent and strong. She was not spared the falls and broken bones of old age, but she always did her rehab zealously and returned to life "on her own" in her condo, with just occasional help from a housekeeper. However, even she could not recover from a massive stroke two weeks before her death.

Blanche will long be remembered and missed by her family and her many friends at CVE.

The Mayor's Message

By TODD DROSKY, Mayor/City of Deerfield Beach

Important City Charter Amendments on Your November Ballot

Dear Century Village East Neighbors,

As we approach the November election, I want to discuss a critical item on your ballot. Along with local, state, and national races, you will be asked to vote on nine proposed amendments to the City of Deerfield Beach Charter.

Our City Charter essentially serves as our local constitution. It outlines how our city government operates, how our departments function, and how we serve you. Over time, it is vital to review and update this foundational document to ensure it meets the current and future needs of our growing community.

This November, the nine proposed amendments you will see touch on various aspects of city governance. Century Village East residents are historically among our most engaged, informed, and active voters, and I want to ensure you have all the facts before you head to the polls.

I strongly encourage you to review the exact ballot language and the specific details of each proposal. You can find comprehensive information on our dedicated webpage at dfb.city/charter.

Your voice directly shapes the future of Deerfield Beach. Thank you for your continued civic engagement and for being such an essential part of our great City.

Sincerely,
Todd Drosky
Mayor, City of Deerfield Beach

From the Commissioner

By DANIEL SHANETZKY, Commissioner, District 3

Big Questions for CVE Residents Coming Up in November Election Ballot

This November's city wide election will have questions on the ballot which will directly affect the quality of life here in Deerfield Beach. CVE residents will not only cast their ballot vote for Governor, Senator, Congress, State Rep and Judges but will vote yes or no on five key City Charter questions that will influence the city. I am on public record that I voted no on all five of these City Charter amendment questions during the July 28 2026 City Commission meeting. The first one is Question D which changes the city's election dates from March to November. But it also extends the current commission's terms by 20 months with no election in 2027 or 2029. The second one is Question E which removes voters rights to approve the sale of city-owned property worth more than $750,000. No public referendum is required. Question G, eliminates Floor Area Ratio entirely, which controls the Mass, density of buildings in the Deerfield Beach Island/ Beach area. The results would be irreversible. Question H would allow developers to use the Island public beach parking lot for broad commercial use. Question I would require a four vote to one vote "Super Majority" City Commission vote to make any changes regarding Public Safety in the city. I did a lot of research and discussed it thoroughly with constituents before I made my vote on whether to pass these amendment questions to November ballot for voters to decide. They need to have an over 50 percent approval by the voters before they are exacted in the updated Deerfield Beach City Charter. I am happy to explain them to anybody in the city who wants to discuss or has an inquiry. My number is 954-405-2324.

COOCVE President's Report

By RON SANDLER, President/COOCVE

Welcome Back!

As another season begins in Century Village East, welcome back to the Village. And to my fellow Québécois, bienvenue chez vous! It is great to see the Village filling up again.

There has been a lot happening at COOCVE. Here are a few highlights.

We redesigned our website, www.coocve.com, around one question: how can COOCVE help Board members? It's easier to navigate, and a new Owner Resources Guide helps owners quickly find where to go with questions, concerns, and complaints. New content includes the 2026 Contractor Survey, updated Election information, legal updates including HB 797's impact, and Attorney Q&As on topics from 55+ Communities to Rental Restriction Enforcement.

Ready to Update Your Governing Documents? Try SDP-2! The SDP-2 Model Governing Documents Program offers professionally developed, modern templates, from a free self-service package to fully customized modernization and adoption support. Thirteen Associations have already signed on and received their document packages.

A quick update on other initiatives: we've put the Owner/Association Dispute Assistance Program on hold after finding no viable marketplace options at this time. Our new COOCVE logo is live on our website, new signage is up at our shared building with The Reporter, and our collaboration with The Reporter continues to grow.

Visit our website to learn more about any of these topics.

We look forward to sharing more progress with you in the months ahead, as we continue building knowledge for Board Members and guidance for Owners.

Respectfully,
Ron Sandler
President, COOCVE

What is Elder Abuse?

Each year hundreds of thousands of older persons are abused, neglected, and exploited. Many victims are people who are older, frail, and vulnerable and cannot help themselves and depend on others to meet their most basic needs. Abusers of older adults are both women and men, and may be family members, friends, or "trusted others."

In general, elder abuse is a term referring to any knowing, intentional, or negligent act by a caregiver or any other person that causes harm or a serious risk of harm to a vulnerable adult. Legislatures in all 50 states have passed some form of elder abuse prevention laws. Laws and definitions of terms vary considerably from one state to another, but broadly defined, abuse may be:

- Physical Abuse – inflicting physical pain or injury on a senior, e.g. slapping, bruising, or restraining by physical or chemical means.
- Sexual Abuse – non-consensual sexual contact of any kind.
- Neglect – the failure by those responsible to provide food, shelter, health care, or protection for a vulnerable elder.
- Exploitation – the illegal taking, misuse, or concealment of funds, property, or assets of a senior for someone else's benefit.
- Emotional Abuse – inflicting mental pain, anguish, or distress on an elder person through verbal or nonverbal acts, e.g. humiliating, intimidating, or threatening.
- Abandonment – desertion of a vulnerable elder by anyone who has assumed the responsibility for care or custody of that person.
- Self-neglect – characterized as the failure of a person to perform essential, self-care tasks and that such failure threatens his/her own health or safety.

What are the warning signs of elder abuse?

While one sign does not necessarily indicate abuse, some tell-tale signs that there could be a problem are:

- Bruises, pressure marks, broken bones, abrasions, and burns.
- Unexplained withdrawal from normal activities.
- Sudden changes in financial situations may be the result of exploitation.
- Bedsores, unattended medical needs, poor hygiene, and unusual weight loss are indicators of possible neglect.

Most importantly, be alert. The suffering is often in silence. If you notice changes in a senior's personality or behavior, you should start to question what is going on.

Remember, it is not your role to verify that abuse is occurring, only to alert others of your suspicions.

To report elder abuse 24/7 call 1-800-962-2873.

DANGERS OF TRYING TO BE YOUR OWN LAWYER

By Martin Zevin, Attorney

You have probably heard the saying: "The lawyer who represents himself has a fool for a client." If that is true, what about a non-lawyer who tries to represent himself?

In this age of the internet, people attempt to prepare their own legal documents, accessing a website which provides generic forms: Power of Attorney, Health Care Surrogate, Living Will, Deed, Trust and Will.

I have seen very few non-lawyers successfully create and properly execute any of the above documents. Documents are created and/or executed improperly, resulting in a legal can of worms.

Each of our fifty states has its own unique set of laws. Attempting to use a generic form for Florida is asking for trouble.

There is no guarantee that hiring a lawyer will mean a good result. However, you certainly stand a much better chance than doing it on your own.

I am available for a free phone consultation regarding Estate Planning. Call me at 954-569-4878. My address is 3275 W. Hillsboro Blvd., Suite 204, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442. My website is www.martinzevinpa.com and my e-mail address is martinzevin@netzero.com.

Open Monday thru Friday – 10:00am to 2:00pm

Thanks to Clubhouse Library Volunteer LITA ANDREANO for providing the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

The Library now has a page on the CenClub website. https://cenclub.com/read-1 Please visit the page for current information.

Please note we will be closed on Monday, October 12th for Indigenous Day.

For those new to CVE please come in to browse or join our library. It's located in the Clubhouse lower-level across from the Billiard room, which is located on the shuffleboard courts side of the Clubhouse.

If you have a CVE ID, come in and borrow one of our 5,000+ holdings, read the New York Times, or shop at our variety of boutique items for sale. If you cannot find the book, ask a Library volunteer to assist you. They will look the book up on our tablet. If we have the book, they will let you know where to find it on our shelves. We have two types of circulation.

Reserved Circulation contains our newest books, which are constantly arriving. Becoming a Friend of the Library for an annual $3 donation will allow you to borrow these new books. A Friend may also waitlist-reserve a book currently borrowed. Ask a Reservist how this works. Once interest in a new book diminishes it is placed in Regular Circulation. We have both regular print and large print books. Kindly look at the listings below for the new regular and large print books.

How do we obtain new books? The library sells items that have been donated. We have greeting cards, puzzles, artwork, jewelry and fashion items, etc. The funds we receive from these items are used to purchase new books. Neither CenClub nor Master Management fund the purchase of our new library books. However, we do appreciate the CenClub subscribing to our daily New York Times and Wall Street Journal. In order to read these newspapers, you will leave your ID at our desk until you return the newspaper.

Have donations? The library gladly accepts artwork of any media, puzzles, boutique items, as well as fiction books written in the last 10 years, and non-fiction books in good condition. Your support for the purchase of new books for the library, is greatly appreciated.

A convenient book drop box, to the left of the library entrance, is available for use when the library is closed to return and/or donate books.

Volunteers staff the library in 2-hour shifts for our residents' and staff's enjoyment. If you'd like to volunteer, please leave contact information at the library, and CVE Library President, Ruth Schroeder, will contact you. You can also call at (954) 481-2898.

Heart of A Stranger

Written by Angela Buchdahl
Reviewed by Hilary Nachbar

This is a story of a Korean-American woman with an American-Jewish father and Korean mother, who grows up to be a rabbi. As the cover of the books says, it is quite an unusual yet very interesting story. The first years of Angela's life were spent in Korea learning about both her Korean Buddhist culture and the Jewish religion. As the years went by and after they emigrated to America, Angela became more and more interested in the Jewish religion. By the time she turned 16 she felt the first stirrings of wanting to become a rabbi.

As you can imagine wanting to become a rabbi and being Korean would be no easy endeavor. Would an ethically mixed woman be accepted? She would have many obstacles and plenty of naysayers and heavy-duty challenges to face including many prejudices to confront, but her determination, persistence and steadfast goal, she does endure. A wonderful read of the many controversial topics, you will be astonished at her will, intelligence and perseverance.

Maple Snickerdoodles

Thanks to GLORIA QUIAT for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

I'm pretty sure everyone has heard of snickerdoodles, right? Those delightfully cinnamony bundles of buttery goodness? This recipe is an adaptation of the original and is also a tasty reminder of the brave and hearty people who tended the maple orchards of the frozen north! Brrrr! Tapping the sap is what they called it. I call it pure natural deliciousness.

This snickerdoodle has all the different tastes and textures you might want in a sweet treat. After baking, as the cookie cools and the puffiness goes away, you will find a very flat, crinkly cookie that is soft and chewy on the inside and sugary-crisp on the outside! Enjoy!

Maple Snickerdoodles

Yield: 3 dozen medium-large cookies

Ingredients

2 cups all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
Pinch of salt
1 1/2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
1/2 cup butter, softened
1 cup white sugar
3 tablespoons real maple syrup
1 egg
1/2 cup white sugar

 1/3 cup maple sugar **

Directions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Stir together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon and salt. Set aside.

In a large bowl, cream together the butter and 1 cup of white sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in the egg and maple syrup. Gradually blend in the dry ingredients until just mixed.

In a small dish, mix together the remaining 1/2 cup white sugar and the maple sugar. Roll dough into 1 1/4 inch balls, and roll the balls in the maple sugar mixture. Place balls 2 inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets.

Bake 8 to 10 minutes in the preheated oven. Cookies will be crackly on top and look wet in the middle. Remove from cookie sheets to cool on wire racks.

Baker's note: If you don't have maple sugar, don't fret. You can easily make "fake" maple sugar. (Or, easier still, buy it online.)

The night before baking, put about ⅓ of a cup of white sugar into a small bowl and add a heavy teaspoon of liquid maple syrup. Mix the two with a fork until evenly incorporated. Let the mixture sit on the counter overnight. In the morning, simply schmoosh the hardened sugar into… (fake) maple sugar!

Please DO NOT Feed the Ducks at the Pool Areas

It's so tempting to want to feed the wildlife.

The reality is the ducks come looking for a free meal at the pool areas. They are making a mess in the pools as well as on the decks. This is a health hazard and an inconvenience to everyone as the pool and/or pool areas have to be closed and cleaned and the pool treated for the feces that has gotten into the pool.
