CVE Master Management Takes Another Step to Improve Durham Canal Area

CVE Master Management is taking another step to improve the area along the Durham Canal, asking the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to help determine whether the canal bank can be strengthened enough to potentially support a concrete wall in the future. The effort follows concerns raised by Durham residents after CVE Master Management removed significant overgrowth along the canal bank. While the vegetation needed attention, it had also served as a visual barrier between the Durham buildings and Hillsboro Boulevard. Its removal left the buildings more exposed to the roadway than they had been previously. CVE Master Management has already begun addressing those concerns by installing additional landscaping intended to restore a more substantial visual buffer. Now, at

Ten members of the Allied Universal Security team at Century Village East have been recognized for actions ranging from helping save a resident's life to apprehending trespassers and safely securing a firearm discovered inside the community. The security personnel were honored during an Aug. 6 awards ceremony recognizing exceptional performance, professionalism and actions taken during several incidents in June and July. Several of the awards stemmed from a life-threatening medical emergency involving a resident on July 24. Senior Director of Security Leif Herman was recognized for providing immediate lifesaving first aid, while Security Officers Delouise Isom and Georia Williams were honored for assisting during the emergency. Security Officer Jane Ramirez was also recognized for the response, which included safely moving the resident out of a traffic area and providing aid until additional assistance arrived. Security Major Peter Rossi was honored for assisting the resident and providing support throughout the incident. Other awards recognized security personnel for their

The Stage Is Set for a Spectacular Season at CVE

Real Issues. Real Trust. Real Journalism. Real Track Record.

The curtain is about to rise on another season of entertainment at Century Village East, and CenClub's newly released 2026-27 show schedule promises nearly five months of music, comedy and live performances offering something for almost every taste.

Beginning in November and continuing through March, the season will bring dozens of performances to the CVE stage, ranging from celebrations of legendary rock, pop and Motown performers to Broadway favorites, comedy, country music, orchestral performances, magic and more.

The season gets underway Nov. 15 with "Sistas of the '70s," celebrating some of the great female voices of the decade, including the music of Carole King, Bonnie Raitt, Carly Simon, Janis Joplin and Dionne Warwick. One week later, "Motown N' More," featuring The Old Skool Gang, brings the sounds of Motown and classic soul to the stage.

Classic rock fans get their first big night Nov. 29 when Forever Eric pays tribute to Eric Clapton, including music from his solo career and his years with Cream, The Yardbirds, Blind Faith and Derek and the Dominos.

December offers an eclectic lineup. Leslie McDonnell celebrates Janis Joplin and other women of rock Dec. 13, followed by the Broward Pops Orchestra Winter Concert Dec. 20. Chris Ruggiero brings the music of the 1950s, '60s and '70s to CVE Dec. 27 with "Teenage Dreams & Magic Moments."

CVE will ring in 2027 with two New Year's Eve events. Jayne Curry presents "Diva Fever," a high-energy celebration of iconic female performers, followed later that evening by CenClub's New Year's Eve Party in the Party Room.

January brings one of the busiest stretches of the season. "Viva Brazil!" opens the month Jan. 3, followed Jan. 6 by "The Rocket Man Show," starring Scotsman Rus Anderson in a tribute to Elton John. Country music takes over Jan. 10 with Lane Braden & The Classic Country Jamboree.

Eagles Revival celebrates the music of the Eagles on Jan. 17, while Uptown follows Jan. 20 with a contemporary take on Motown and soul. Other January offerings include "To Life," a celebration of Jewish Broadway and Hollywood; JZ Magic Live!; "So Cher," starring Rachel Hawnt; and world-renowned chazzan Nissim Saal.

January concludes with The Bronx Wanderers on Jan. 31. The new show direct from Las Vegas spans decades of popular music, with songs associated with artists ranging from Dion and Frankie Valli to Billy Joel and Bruno Mars.

One of February's most notable performers arrives Feb. 7 when Tony and Grammy Award winner John Lloyd Young takes the CVE stage. Young originated the role of Frankie Valli in Broadway's "Jersey Boys" and starred in the Clint Eastwood-directed film adaptation. His "Mostly Soul" show features music from Broadway, Motown and other favorites.

February also includes Solid Brass, featuring the sounds of classic horn bands; a Valentine's Day dance; a jazz journey "From The Duke to Diana"; and Comedy Night with Jimmy Shubert and Cory Kahaney.

On Feb. 21, the Klezmer Company Jazz Orchestra presents "Fiddler on the Roof! A Sing Along," inviting the audience to join in familiar songs from the Broadway classic. "Viva Pavarotti" follows Feb. 24 with a celebration of the legendary tenor, while the Honky Tonk Chicks close out the month with country favorites.

March provides a strong finish to the season. Lou Gazzara presents "My Way," a tribute to the songbook of Paul Anka, on March 3, followed the next night by WANTED, a Bon Jovi tribute.

Comedy returns March 7 with "Too Italian To Be Quiet!" featuring Tammy Pescatelli and Adam Ferrara. "Black Tie Optional" celebrates Michael Bubl  on March 10, while "Decades in Duet" takes audiences through six decades of popular music on March 14.

Classic rock returns March 17 with Bad Moon Rising, a Creedence Clearwater Revival tribute. The Prime Time Music Orchestra performs March 21, followed by Jason Webb & The Caribbean Chillers with their Jimmy Buffett tribute March 24.

The season closes March 31 with True Rumours, a Fleetwood Mac tribute featuring favorites including "Dreams," "The Chain" and "Go Your Own Way."

From Motown, Broadway and comedy to the music of Elton John, the Eagles, Cher, Bon Jovi, Jimmy Buffett and Fleetwood Mac, the new lineup gives CVE residents plenty of reasons to spend a night at the theater without ever leaving the Village.

CenClub advises that performances generally run between 75 and 90 minutes and that the schedule is subject to change. Updated performance information and tickets are available through CenClub.

the request of residents, it is also exploring whether more can be done. The original Hillsboro Boulevard perimeter project has been completed as planned. A solid concrete wall was constructed along portions of the roadway where ground conditions allowed it, while a fence was installed behind Durham. Because the canal runs along the property line in that area, the canal bank could not support the weight of the concrete wall used elsewhere. CVE Master Management is now investigating whether that could change. On Aug. 19, CVE Master Management formally requested assistance from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers through its Continuing Authorities Program. The request involves approximately 1,756 linear feet of canal bank along Hillsboro Boulevard and seeks federal assistance in studying ways to strengthen and stabilize the area. A January geotechnical study found challenging subsurface conditions, including loose to medium-dense sand and groundwater approximately four to six feet below the surface. A preliminary engineering assessment has identified a vegetated rip-rap system as one possible method of strengthening and protecting the bank.

That concept would use large stone and other materials to stabilize the shoreline while preserving mature trees and existing vegetation wherever practical and adding native vegetation. The Army Corps request does not mean a concrete wall has been approved or will ultimately be constructed. Rather, it is another step in CVE Master Management's effort to determine what improvements are possible along this unique stretch of the CVE perimeter. Combined with the new landscaping already being installed, the study could provide CVE Master Management with additional options for improving the area behind Durham and, potentially, determining whether the canal bank can someday be strengthened sufficiently to support a wall similar to those along other portions of Hillsboro Boulevard.

response to unauthorized individuals entering or attempting to enter the community. Security Lieutenant Saara Silvera and Security Officer Amos Lubin were honored for apprehending a trespasser on July 18 who had an active No Contact Order. Security Sergeant Chasity Gibbs received recognition for actions during two separate incidents. On June 14, Gibbs helped apprehend and detain a trespasser attempting to gain access to the property.

Gibbs was again recognized for apprehending and detaining a disturbed trespasser who gained access to the property on July 19. Security Officer Nehemie Pierre was also honored for apprehending and detaining the trespasser attempting to gain access to the property during the June 14 incident. Security Captain Shallel Satchell received recognition for safely securing a firearm and other evidence discovered on the property on July 19 and ensuring the items were properly turned over to the Broward Sheriff's Office. The awards recognized the vigilance and professionalism demonstrated by members of the Allied Universal Security team and the role their actions played in protecting and assisting Century Village East residents.

Master Management Reminder Aims at More Efficient Meetings

Text by CVE REPORTER STAFF
Real Issues. Real Trust. Real Journalism. Real Track Record.

With CVE Master Management Board of Directors meetings resuming for the season on Sept. 17, residents are being reminded of guidelines governing what topics can be addressed during meetings.

The policy is intended to keep meetings focused on matters that fall within CVE Master Management’s responsibilities while continuing to provide residents an opportunity to address the Board.

Resident comments must relate to CVE Master Management business, including its operations, services, governance, policies, projects, facilities and maintenance responsibilities.

The comment period is not intended to serve as a general community forum for matters outside CVE Master Management’s jurisdiction. That includes City of Deerfield Beach business, issues involving individual condominium associations, Cen-Club matters or other general community information.

The management company suggested residents with information they believe should be shared throughout the Village can contact the CVE Reporter about possible publication in an upcoming issue.

While CVE Master Management Board meetings can sometimes have the look and feel of public government meetings, there is an important distinction. CVE Master Management is a private organization, and its Board meetings are conducted for the purpose of addressing the company’s business and responsibilities.

Resident participation is welcome when it relates to that business. However, unlike the public comment period at a government meeting, the Board is permitted to establish rules governing resident comments and ensure speakers remain focused on matters within CVE Master Management’s jurisdiction.

Under the policy, speakers may generally be allotted up to three minutes, although the Board Chair or Board of Directors may adjust speaking times or the overall comment period when necessary.

The Board Chair oversees resident comments and may interrupt, redirect or end comments that stray from CVE Master Management business or otherwise fall outside the policy.

The guidelines are intended to streamline meetings and keep the meeting focused on issues directly related to CVE Master Management and its responsibilities within Century Village East.

What’s Better: Life Estate Deed (Lady Bird) or Revocable Trust

By Martin Zevin, Attorney

Avoid probate on your home when you die: Life Estate Deed or Trust?

In a Life Estate Deed (sometimes called Lady Bird) you own your property for life and name someone to inherit at your death. There are risks, particularly if both of you die together. Instead of no probate, there will be two probates.

The best way to avoid probate on your home is a Revocable Living Trust. The Deed transfers the property to you as Trustee of your Trust. You are able to keep your homestead exemption, maintain complete control of the property during your lifetime and make amendments to your Trust without changing the Deed. There are no risks involved. The only disadvantage of the Trust is that it will cost more money in attorney’s fees. Discuss with your attorney the difference in fees between the Trust and the Life Estate Deed. You can then determine whether it is worth spending the extra money to avoid the risks.

Salsa y Sonrisas Social Club brought CVE residents and guests together

Aug. 2 for an evening of music, dancing and generosity that raised $2,650 for victims of the devastating earthquake in Venezuela. Held at Le Club, the fundraiser combined an evening of entertainment with an opportunity to help those affected by the disaster. Organizers said the strong turnout and generosity demonstrated the community’s willingness to come together to support people facing hardship thousands of miles away.

All of the money raised during the event was donated to Global Empowerment Mission, which provides humanitarian assistance to communities affected by disasters and other crises.

Organizers extended special thanks to DJ Aldi, who donated his time and talent to provide music for the evening, as well as Maria for her continued assistance and support. Ana was recognized for creating the decorations that transformed Le Club for the event.

Hilda, Mimi, Susan and Tito were also thanked for donating their time, support and resources to help make the fundraiser possible.

Salsa y Sonrisas expressed its appreciation to everyone who attended, donated, volunteered or participated in the event. Organizers said the evening demonstrated how music and friendship can bring people together while turning the community’s compassion into meaningful assistance for those in need.

The fundraiser was part of a broader charitable effort to unite communities in responding to crises and providing assistance to people in need.

A New Social Club Brings CVE Together

Thanks to ROSEANN FUSCO for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

A new chapter in CVE’s social life is bringing residents together, as two longtime community traditions have evolved into the Century Village East Social Club, an inclusive group offering activities, outings and opportunities for both singles and couples to make new friends.

The club has its roots in two groups that were part of CVE life for nearly two decades. The Social Singles group, led by Felicia Prince, provided companionship and connection for residents who were single, divorced or widowed. It was particularly meaningful during holidays and special occasions, providing a place where residents could spend time with others rather than feel alone.

At the same time, the Newbies Club, led by Rebecca Karan, welcomed both singles and couples who were new to CVE. It gave newcomers an opportunity to meet their neighbors, learn about the community and begin forming friendships.

Although the two groups served different purposes and operated independently, both filled an important social role within the Village.

When the longtime leaders of both groups eventually stepped down, no one initially volunteered to take their place. Recognizing the importance of continuing those opportunities, Thea Morrison approached her friend Susan Saleh and encouraged her to take over the Singles group.

Once Saleh became involved, the group began to evolve. Members expressed an interest in including partners in activities, creating an opportunity to combine the purposes of the former Singles and Newbies clubs into something new.

The result was the Century Village East Social Club, open to residents looking to meet people, build friendships and enjoy activities together.

Since its formation, members have participated in golf outings, concerts, symphonies, comedy shows, dinners, game nights, murder mystery events, pool parties, card games and other social activities.

The club is led by President Susan Saleh, Vice President Thea Morrison, Financial Officer Ronnie Gurin and Secretary Roseann Fusco. Together, the board organizes events, outings and celebrations designed to provide residents with opportunities to connect and become more involved in CVE’s social life.

The Century Village East Social Club generally meets on the third Wednesday of each month at 6 p.m. in the GP-A Room. The first meeting of the new season will be an exception and will be held Wednesday, Sept. 9.

Annual membership is $25 for the 2026-27 season. Cash and checks are accepted at meetings, and payment may also be made through Zelle at CVESC954@yahoo.com.

Residents seeking additional information may email ro.fusco@yahoo.com.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A NOTE TO OUR READERS: This original submission addressed two separate issues: the condition of the community’s canals and the maintenance of trees throughout CVE. The CVE Reporter has chosen to omit the portion concerning canal maintenance because that subject has been covered extensively in recent months. Information and updates regarding the canals have been provided by CVE Master Management at public Board meetings and through its monthly newsletter, and the issue was also the subject of a front-page story in the June edition of the CVE Reporter. Readers seeking additional information about canal maintenance are encouraged to refer to those previous reports and updates. The portion of the submission addressing tree maintenance is published below.

Letter to the Editor

Caring for Our Trees Also Means Caring for Our Community

We live in a place where trees are much more than decorative elements. They provide shade, help moderate the heat, contribute to people’s well-being, and are part of the habitat for numerous species.

At a time when summers are becoming increasingly difficult to endure, we should ask ourselves whether we are doing enough to preserve the trees we still have and, whenever possible, plant new ones.

In some places, we can see the removal or reduction of trees that are already part of our landscape. I understand that there are safety, maintenance, infrastructure, and planning reasons that must be considered. However, when a tree has to be removed, it would be wonderful if we could also ask ourselves: Can we replace it with another one?

Nature should not be seen only as something that needs to be controlled or maintained. It can also be our protection.

A Proposal, Not an Accusation

My intention is not to accuse the workers who perform the maintenance. They are carrying out the instructions and procedures they are given. My questions are directed at all of us and, especially, at those who are responsible for establishing those procedures:

Can We Protect and Increase Our Tree Coverage?

Century Village is our community. We live here, walk here, enjoy these natural spaces, and share this place with fish, turtles, birds, and many other species.

We cannot prevent every change that occurs in nature, but we can prevent some of the problems that we ourselves create.

This is not as a complaint, but as an invitation to look, ask questions, and seek solutions.

A New Way To Experience Israel After 55

Thanks to LEAH ILYAS for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

Recently, my husband and I saw a Facebook advertisement about an opportunity to volunteer in Israel. We were immediately interested and decided to apply. What started with a simple advertisement has now turned into an exciting journey, and we wanted to share our experience so others in our 55+ community will know that opportunities like this exist.

After registering for the program, we completed the application process, submitted the required documents and paid the application fee and a portion of the travel costs through the Taglit-Birthright Israel program.

The next step was a telephone interview. My husband and I were interviewed separately by a very pleasant representative who spoke with us in English. She asked about our backgrounds, personalities, reasons for wanting to volunteer and what motivated us to participate.

During the interview, we also learned more about what to expect in Israel. Volunteers generally work approximately four to five hours a day, in addition to transportation time.

Depending on where help is needed, assignments may include packaging and organizing supplies in a warehouse, assisting in a hospital or helping with agricultural work.

After completing our daily volunteer responsibilities, we will have free time to explore Israel independently. Participants can also join organized group excursions for an additional cost.

After completing all the requirements and interviews, we were very happy to learn that we had been accepted!

We were then registered through the Taglit-Birthright Israel website, where our group of 24 participants was formed. We began introducing ourselves and sharing information while the organizers continued providing updates and important details about our upcoming trip.

A direct flight was arranged from Miami to Tel Aviv, making the journey especially convenient for those of us traveling from Florida.

One of the things that impressed me most was the diversity of our group. Participants range in age from approximately 25 to 78. Additional volunteers will be joining us from Texas, including a Chabad rabbi and his wife. People of different ages, backgrounds and professions are coming together with one common purpose: to volunteer, contribute and help Israel.

We are very much looking forward to meeting everyone who will be traveling with us and sharing this meaningful experience.

The main reason we wanted to tell our story is to let members of our 55+ community know that volunteer opportunities in Israel are not limited to young adults. Many people are familiar with Birthright Israel primarily as a program for younger generations and may not realize there are opportunities for older adults to participate in volunteer programs as well.

Being over 55 does not mean our opportunities to travel, contribute, meet new people and make a difference are behind us. On the contrary, this stage of life gives us something extremely valuable to offer: our experience, skills, maturity, compassion and willingness to help.

For anyone in our community who has ever thought, "I would love to help, but I didn't know there was a program for people my age," we hope our story provides some encouragement.

We are now beginning our journey and look forward to discovering what this volunteer experience will truly be like.

After we return, we hope to share another article with the community about our experience, including the volunteer work we performed, the people we met, the places we visited and what we learned along the way.

Perhaps our journey will inspire someone else in our 55+ community to join a future volunteer group and experience this opportunity for themselves.

Farnham D and Grantham C Earn CIAC Accreditation

Thanks to HOWARD SILVERSTONE for providing the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

The CIAC Committee is pleased to announce that two more CVE associations have earned CIAC accreditation.

Farnham D Association and Grantham C Association were recently awarded accreditation after demonstrating that they operate at a high level of quality and are generally in compliance with Florida Statutes, applicable federal laws and their own governing documents.

With the addition of Farnham D and Grantham C, the number of currently accredited CVE associations has grown to 16.

The CIAC Committee encourages all CVE associations to consider participating in the accreditation program. Associations interested in pursuing excellence and receiving public recognition for meeting CIAC standards can learn more about the accreditation process by visiting cve-ciach.org.

Temple B’nai Shalom Prepares for High Holiday Services

Thanks to PAUL SCHEINER for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

Temple B’nai Shalom is preparing for its annual High Holiday celebration this month at the Activity Center, with services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur open to both temple members and the community.

Services will once again be led by Cantor Mitchell Martin, whose spiritual and meaningful services were extremely well received by those who attended last year.

High Holiday tickets are free for Temple B’nai Shalom members and are available to the public for $118 per person. One ticket includes admission to both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. Services will also be available via Zoom for paid members and ticket holders.

Rosh Hashanah services begin Friday, Sept. 11, at 7:30 p.m. with the evening service. The first-day service will be held Saturday, Sept. 12, at 10 a.m., followed by the second-day service Sunday, Sept. 13, at 10 a.m. Tashlich will take place at the West Drive canal following Sunday’s service. Because the shofar is not blown on Shabbat, it will be sounded during Sunday’s service.

Yom Kippur observances begin with Kol Nidre on Sunday, Sept. 20, at 7:30 p.m. Services continue Monday, Sept. 21, with the morning service at 10 a.m. and the afternoon service at 3:30 p.m., including Yizkor, Neilah and the blowing of the shofar.

Tickets may be purchased by mailing a check for $118, payable to Temple B’nai Shalom, to Bernice Schmier, 2071

Ventnor P, Deerfield Beach, FL 33442. For additional information, call Bernice at 954-570-3316 or Paul at 630-452-1131. More information is also available at templebnaishalom.org.

Bicycle Safety and Policy Reminder

- Residents are reminded to use the bike racks provided at all recreation areas.
- Bicycles are not permitted on pool decks due to a major health code violation.
- Any bicycles left abandoned in restricted areas may be booted by security or removed by management after repeated offenses.
- For safety reasons, bicycle riding is not permitted on recreation sidewalks, within the maintenance area, or under the tunnel entrance to the clubhouse. These restrictions are in place because equipment and materials are frequently moved through these areas.
- Residents are asked not to bike through these areas. Instead, please ride around the clubhouse or walk your bicycle safely through the area if necessary.

GUEST COLUMNS

From the Commissioner

By DANIEL SHANETZKY, Commissioner, District 3

Last month I met with the Community representative from the Tax Collector of Broward County’s Office. The Tax Collector Office of Broward County was created 2 years ago to better serve citizens of the county. One of the responsibilities that the office took over was the Dept of Motor Vehicles which was previously a State Office task. The Tax Collector office was looking for new ways to serve Broward

County, as a result Driver Assistance Service Hub or DASH was created to directly bring driver license services into communities in Broward County with a mobile office to make governmental offices more accessible. By doing this they are expanding access, reducing travel time and making it easier to receive exceptional service. I am proud to announce that I am working with The Tax Collector of Broward

County and Cen Club to bring DASH to Century Village East here in Deerfield Beach. We are planning to start it around October of this year on a monthly or Bi Monthly basis. Watch for a Email Blast for the exact dates and location in CVE. The DASH team will be by Appointment only and CVE residents will be able to renew their Florida Driver’s License, pay their Property Tax and Business Tax bill, take payments and signup people for Broward County epayments, signup for vehicle registration, pay for Drivers License and Florida I. D’s which are important to convert for voting purposes. The goal of DASH in CVE is to hopefully make 30 to 40 appointments every month. I will be getting more information about the signup process.

Sunday Church Services Continue at Le Club

Thanks to RICHARD EPPERLY for providing the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

CVE residents are invited to join Calvary Chapel Boca for a weekly Sunday YouTube church service at Le Club Activity Room C.

Doors open each Sunday at 10 a.m., with the YouTube service beginning at 11 a.m. Transportation is available from the Clubhouse by taking the community bus to Le Club. Residents should note that there will be no services Sunday, Sept. 13, or Sunday, Sept. 20, because the room is reserved for other events on those dates. Everyone is welcome to attend. For additional information, contact Richard at 954-560-8079.

Coyotes in Florida

Coyotes live in urban, suburban and rural areas throughout Florida. Follow these tips to avoid conflicts.

FEEDING COYOTES is ILLEGAL. THEY WILL LOSE THEIR FEAR OF HUMANS.

SECURE GARBAGE CANS. CLEAN UP PET FOOD and FALLEN FRUIT.

SECURE LIVESTOCK in PREDATOR-RESISTANT Enclosures.

KEEP PETS IN ENCLOSED AREAS. WALK DOGS ON A SHORT LEASH.

Coyotes are an important part of the landscape in Florida. They help maintain healthy ecosystems by managing populations of rodents, insects and other small animals. By preventing conflicts, we can better coexist with coyotes and other wildlife.

Average Florida COYOTE WEIGHS 28 lbs.

Coyote Tracks: 3-4" long Paw Tracks: 3-4" long Tail: 2' long
Coyotes are often seen in the morning and evening, and they are most active at night.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Remembering Arthur “Ponto” Ponto

Thanks to LOUISE DENARDO for providing the information and photo for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

Longtime CVE resident Arthur D. “Ponto” Ponto, of Prescott B, passed away July 14, 2026, at the age of 89, leaving behind cherished memories and lifelong friendships.

Born Dec. 4, 1936, in the Federal Hill section of Providence, Rhode Island, Ponto was known for his kind heart and the lasting impression he made on those who knew him.

During his career as a long-haul truck driver, Ponto traveled an extraordinary 6.3 million miles across the country behind the wheel of a semi-trailer truck. His accomplishments on the road earned him numerous driving awards throughout his career.

Ponto also gave back to his community through service with the Deerfield Beach Police Department.

He will be deeply missed by his friends, neighbors and all those whose lives he touched.

A small gathering celebrating Ponto’s life is planned for September.

Blanche Weinberg, CVE Resident

Thanks to JAMES HICKS for providing the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

Blanche Weinberg, a CVE Resident for more than 25 years, died peacefully on June 27th, not long after her 101st birthday.

Blanche was married for 26 years to her first husband, Paul Kahn, who was among the first violinists in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. She was married to her second husband, Jerome Weinberg, for 30 years. After Jerome’s death, her final partner in life—as well as in bridge—was Sudhakar Bhatt, who passed away in their CVE condo in 2022.

Blanche loved her family beyond all measure. To the end, she enjoyed keeping in touch with her daughters, Debby and Vivian, sharing their joys and comforting them in their sorrows.

Blanche also had close ties to her neighbors in Farnham N, especially Dori Insalaco.

Dori and Blanche became friends in recent years, sharing stories and delighting in each other’s company. Dori supported and cared for Blanche in her final weeks, even creating a playlist of violin music that visibly moved Blanche even after she had lost the power to speak.

CVE residents Jim and Jill Hicks were also close to Blanche, often bringing dinner to her and Dori, with card games to follow.

Blanche loved the arts as well, especially music. She played violin beautifully, serving as concertmaster of the Century Village Symphony Orchestra for many years. She also gave weekly lessons and enjoyed private sessions with fellow musicians. Despite failing sight and hearing, she loved card games, especially bridge and Skip-Bo.

She was fiercely independent and strong. She was not spared the falls and broken bones of old age, but she always did her rehab zealously and returned to life “on her own” in her condo, with just occasional help from a housekeeper. However, even she could not recover from a massive stroke two weeks before her death.

Blanche will long be remembered and missed by her family and her many friends at CVE.

Special Needs Residents Visiting the Clubhouse

We have many residents with special needs (handicapped, mobility challenged, etc.) who are not able to access the Clubhouse without assistance. Fortunately for some residents, they are able to enjoy the Clubhouse amenities through the assistance of an aide, family member or friend. Whoever accompnies a special needs individual should never leave that person unaccompanied.

Reminder of Pool Rules

- Please use the restrooms. A contaminated pool means a closed pool.
 - Reservations are required when having a gathering at the pools.
- Reservations help CenClub know who to contact if there is an issue and keep the team organized.
- Please have your ID card on you at pools and any CenClub area (pictures are not accepted).
 - Food is allowed. Glass is not permitted.
 - Please be courteous to your neighbors, do not play loud music, no ball playing or jumping in the pools.
 - Bikes, electric bikes, and scooters are prohibited on the pool deck. Please keep them at the bike racks.
 - Security officers are patrolling all areas.

PUZZLES & CONTESTS

Name that Landmark Contest

Here's how it works: each month, the CVE Reporter will publish a photo of a landmark located somewhere in the world. It could be a building, statue, mountain, or other notable structure...either man-made or natural. If you recognize the landmark, send to the CVE Reporter, its name and location via email to newsroom@cvereporter.com before the third Wednesday of the month. Winners names will be published in each subsequent edition.

Visit Your CVE Clubhouse Library!

Open Monday thru Friday – 10:00am to 2:00pm

Thanks to Clubhouse Library Volunteer LITA ANDREANO for providing the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

The Library now has a page on the CenClub website. <https://cenclub.com/read-1> Please visit the page for current information.

Please note we will be closed on Monday, September 7th in observance of Labor Day and Monday, September 21st for Yom Kippur.

Our Artwork and Puzzles are 50% off thru all of September!

For those new to CVE please come in to browse or join our library. It's located in the Clubhouse lower-level across from the Billiard room, which is located on the shuffleboard courts side of the Clubhouse.

If you have a CVE ID, come in and borrow one of our 5,000+ holdings, read the New York Times, or shop at our variety of boutique items for sale. If you cannot find the book, ask a Library volunteer to assist you. They will look the book up on our tablet. If we have the book, they will let you know where to find it on our shelves. We have two types of circulation.

Reserved Circulation contains our newest books, which are constantly arriving. Becoming a Friend of the Library for an annual $3 donation will allow you to borrow these new books. A Friend may also waitlist-reserve a book currently borrowed. Ask a Reservist how this works. Once interest in a new book diminishes it is placed in Regular Circulation. We have both regular print and large print books. Kindly look at the listings below for the new regular and large print books.

How do we obtain new books? The library sells items that have been donated. We have greeting cards, puzzles, artwork, jewelry and fashion items, etc. The funds we receive from these items are used to purchase new books. Neither CenClub nor Master Management fund the purchase of our new library books. However, we do appreciate the CenClub subscribing to our daily New York Times and Wall Street Journal. In order to read these newspapers, you will leave your ID at our desk until you return the newspaper.

Have donations? The library gladly accepts artwork of any media, puzzles, boutique items, as well as fiction books written in the last 10 years, and non-fiction books in good condition. Your support for the purchase of new books for the library, is greatly appreciated.

A convenient book drop box, to the left of the library entrance, is available for use when the library is closed to return and/or donate books.

Volunteers staff the library in 2-hour shifts for our residents' and staff's enjoyment. If you'd like to volunteer, please leave contact information at the library, and CVE Library President, Ruth Schroeder, will contact you. You can also call at (954) 481-2898.

Book Review by Hilary Nachbar

Judge Stone
By James Patterson and Viola Davis

Let me start off by saying I hope Mr. Patterson collaborates with Ms. Davis on a second book.

I truly enjoyed this book from cover to cover. This novel takes place in Alabama. It is about a doctor who is on trial for performing an abortion on a 13-year old girl. This is illegal now in AL. The trial stirs up the citizens in Union Springs like you would expect in a trial of this nature. The pro-lifers on one side, the freedom of speech and body on the other side. And if that's not enough, the Ku Klux Klan is involved as well.

There is quite a bit of drama, heartbreak as well as some light moments in this thought-provoking story.

Judge Stone is the main character and a very powerful and influential person as well as a very family-oriented individual. She puts herself in danger because of her opinions and rulings in this case. Judge Stone is willing to fight to make sure there is justice. I highly recommend this book. You will not be able to put it down. It would make a terrific, blockbuster movie someday.

Tennis and Volleyball Players Wanted

Thanks to LARRY COHEN for the information for this story.

The following is resident contributed content. We welcome resident contributions, however, please note The CVE Reporter is not responsible for its content or accuracy.

CVE residents looking to stay active and meet other players are invited to join the community's tennis and volleyball activities.

Tennis players meet seven days a week at the Richmond

Tennis Courts, beginning at sunrise and continuing until approximately 9:30 a.m. Players are welcome to come out and join the fun.

Residents can also take part in volleyball every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9 a.m. Games are played on the sand volleyball court located behind the clubhouse tennis courts.

Both men and women are welcome to participate in the fast-paced volleyball games. New players are encouraged to come out, get some exercise and enjoy the camaraderie.

Risk of Burns from Eruptions of Hot Water Overheated in Microwave Ovens

The FDA has received reports of serious skin burns or scalding injuries around people’s hands and faces as a result of hot water erupting out of a cup after it had been over-heated in a microwave oven. Overheating of water in a cup can result in superheated water (past its boiling temperature) without appearing to boil.

This type of phenomena occurs if water is heated in a clean cup. If foreign materials such as instant coffee or sugar are added before heating, the risk is greatly reduced. If superheating has occurred, a slight disturbance or movement such as picking up the cup, or pouring in a spoonfull of instant coffee, may result in a violent eruption with the boiling water exploding out of the cup.

What Can Consumers Do to Avoid Super-Heated Water?

- Follow the precautions and recommendations found in the microwave oven instruction manuals, specifically the heating time.
- Do not use excessive amounts of time when heating water or liquids in the microwave oven.
- Determine the best time setting to heat the water just to the desired temperature and use that time setting regularly.
